2021/22 School Circular No:47

2nd June, 2022

Dear Parents,

The Resumption of First-Term Parents' Day

The first term exam has been completed in January. Due to the fifth wave of the pandemic, the parents' day has been postponed. Since the government has relaxed some pandemic control measures due to the receding threat of the pandemic, the school has decided to hold the first-term parents' day from 2 pm to 5 pm on Friday, 17th June, 2022. The first-term report card will be distributed on that day. Parents can take this opportunity to review their children's learning progress and outcome during face-to-face meetings with class teachers.

It is a good occasion for parents to review students' learning progress and set learning plans for the coming final exam. Here are the details:

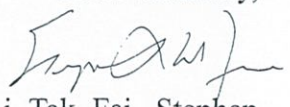

First, class teachers will have meetings with parents and students at scheduled time. Please go to room _____ to see your class teacher at _____. Students must wear proper school uniform and accompany their parents to the school on that day

In addition, in order to brief parents of secondary 3 students about the details of subject selection in the senior forms, the academic committee will hold a briefing session on subject selection from 1:30 pm to 1:50 pm at the library.

The vaccine pass has been implemented in all schools and this applies to all visitors, including parents. The vaccine pass requirements have been modified (including three vaccinations). Our school must comply with the requirements and make corresponding arrangements. Therefore, parents need to use the Leave Home Safe app and to show their vaccine pass.

Your presence and support can give your child tremendous support and encouragement. Therefore, we cordially hope every parent can spare some time to attend the parents' day. Please fill in this reply slip for our arrangement. If you cannot attend the parents' day at scheduled time, please contact the class teacher and make further arrangements.

Yours faithfully,

Li Tak Fai, Stephen
